TaiwanICDF

International Higher Education Scholarship Program

International education and training has long been one of the TaiwanICDF's core operations, among many others. Human resources development programs play a vital role in assisting partner countries achieve sustainable development, and education is a crucial mechanism for training workforces in developing countries. The TaiwanICDF provides scholarships for higher education and has developed undergraduate, graduate and Ph.D. programs in cooperation with renowned partner universities in Taiwan.

The TaiwanICDF has established the Taiwan International Cooperation Alliance (TICA) with 22 partner universities, setting up an operational platform under this TICA framework to manage and improve the scholarship program. In 2023, there are 33 programs offered for TaiwanICDF Scholarship application. More information about each of the programs offered in 2023, please refer to their individual website.

Why TaiwanICDF Scholarship?

- ✧ The programs we provide are specifically designed for the partner countries based on development needs.
- ✧ All programs are taught in English.
- ✧ We encourage the recipients to contribute to home countries' national development after graduation.

Scope of Scholarship

Entitlements: The total scholarship, including airfare (round-trip), housing, tuition, credit fees, insurance, textbook costs and a monthly allowance will be provided by the TaiwanICDF to each student within his/her given award period. The scholarship is itemized as follows:

1. Airfare: The TaiwanICDF shall arrange your most-direct flights to and from Taiwan with Economy Class tickets.
2. Housing: All students must reside in the student dormitories.
3. Tuition fee: The TaiwanICDF will cover the tuition fee as required by the student's university.
4. Credit fees: Credit fees vary with the number of credits registered. Credit fees will also be covered as required by the student's university.
5. Insurance: While in Taiwan, in addition to the mandatory student safety insurance set by the Ministry of Education, each student must be insured for accidental and necessary medical coverage. Insurance fees will be covered for the entire duration of the program.

6. Book costs: Purchasing textbooks as required by the instructors shall be subject to the approval of the director of the student's institute
7. Allowance:
 - (1). Undergraduate's Program: Each student shall receive NT$12,000 per month during the period of the program as allowance for food and miscellaneous living expenses. The sum will be deposited monthly into the student's local bank account.
 - (2). Master's Program: Each student shall receive NT$15,000 per month during the period of the program as allowance for food and miscellaneous living expenses. The sum will be deposited monthly into the student's local bank account.
 - (3). Ph.D. Program: Each student shall receive NT$17,000 per month during the period of the program as allowance for food and miscellaneous living expenses. The sum will be deposited monthly into the student's local bank account.

Step 2 : Contact ROC (Taiwan) Embassy/Office

Applicants should submit the documents listed below to the ROC (Taiwan) Embassy/ Consulate General/ Representative Office in their country. Applicants must ensure that they submit accurate and complete documentation; failure to do so will result in the application not being processed.

Please also note

- Late submissions will not be accepted and/or processed.
 - All Undergraduate Programs only accept applications submitted by citizens of allied countries of ROC(Taiwan).
- 1. A photocopy of applicant's passport or other document showing proof of nationality.
 - 2. A photocopy of applicant's highest-level diploma and academic transcripts.

3. A photocopy of applicant's English proficiency certificate.

Please note: This means a TOEFL test score or that of another recognized English proficiency exam, or documents certifying that the applicant has graduated from a program where all courses were taught in English. Applicants who are unable to provide such proof of English proficiency due to special circumstances may be assessed for English proficiency by an ROC (Taiwan) Embassy/ Consulate General/ Representative Office via interview or other forms of testing. Applicants whose official national language is English are exempt from needing to supply these documents.

4. Two letters of reference.

5. Any other documents specifically requested by an ROC (Taiwan) Embassy/ Consulate General/ Representative Office.

Step 3 : First Review

The ROC (Taiwan) Embassy/ Consulate General/ Representative Office will conduct a first review of applicants based on the eligibility requirements and selection criteria of the TaiwanICDF, and then send their list of recommended applicants to the TaiwanICDF no later than March 31 each year.

Step 4 : Second Review

A second review of the qualified applicants will be conducted by an academic committee organized by the individual partner university in joint cooperation with TaiwanICDF representatives. Such reviews will be based on each university's selection criteria, whilst also accounting for the eligibility requirements and selection criteria of the TaiwanICDF.

Please note:

- Make sure you study through TaiwanICDF School Youtube Channel - Mandarin Course and complete the Online Mandarin Test.
- Your qualification during the second review may be affected if you have not completed the Online Mandarin Test.

Step 5 : Announcement

After the second review has been conducted in cooperation with all partner universities, the TaiwanICDF will announce its list of scholarship recipients, in principle, no later than June 10 each year. Successful applicants will receive an acceptance letter through the ROC (Taiwan) Embassy/ Consulate General/ Representative Office to whom they originally applied.

Please note: Receiving admission from the university does not necessarily mean that the applicant has also been given a TaiwanICDF scholarship. Only applicants who receive an acceptance letter issued by the TaiwanICDF will be recipients of the scholarship.

Step 6 : Respond and Return

Please read over the consent form and return a signed copy to the TaiwanICDF through the R.O.C. (Taiwan) Embassy /Representative Office in your country. By completing the above step, you agree to accept the terms and conditions of the TaiwanICDF Scholarship and become an official scholarship recipient.

NO WORRIES. LET'S GO TO THE NEXT PAGE

FAQ

Q1: Where should I apply for the TaiwanICDF scholarship?

A1: Please enter and submit an application on the TaiwanICDF Scholarship Online Application System

Q2: Can I apply for more than one program at the Taiwan International Cooperation Alliance (TICA) universities?

A2: No. You can only apply for one program at one TICA university each year.

Q3: Can I change my program during the application process?

A3: No. Once you submit the application, changing your program will not be possible.

Q4: Can I apply for a bachelor's program even if my country has no diplomatic relationship with Taiwan (not a diplomatic ally)?

A4: Bachelor's programs can only be applied for by Applicants from diplomatic ally countries; applicants not from diplomatic ally countries are welcome to apply for Master's and Ph.D. programs.

Q5: I am currently studying in another program in another country, can I apply for and receive the TaiwanICDF scholarship?

A5: No. The TaiwanICDF scholarship is exclusively for students at the partner schools/programs within TICA.

Q6: Is there an age limit for application?

A6: No. We will evaluate applicants from an overall perspective rather than accept or reject them based on one single quality. All applicants' positive features will be valued and taken into careful consideration.

Q7: If I receive admission to the university I applied to, does that mean that I have also received the TaiwanICDF scholarship?

A7: No. Receiving admission from the university does not necessarily mean that the applicant has also been given a TaiwanICDF scholarship. Only applicants who receive an acceptance letter issued by the TaiwanICDF will be recipients of the scholarship.

Q8: After I have been accepted by the TaiwanICDF scholarship, can I change my program to another program that is also part of the TICA?

A8: No. Should you decide to do so, your scholarship will be cancelled.

Q9: I am already studying in Taiwan. Can I switch to a TICA partner school/program to receive a scholarship?

A9: You will need to start from the beginning of the application.

Q10: Am I allowed to have a part-time job?

A10: Yes. You may have a part-time job within the scope of employment law in Taiwan. For more information, please click here.

Q11: Can I work in Taiwan after graduation?

A11: Yes. For more information, please click here.

Q12: Can I also be sponsored by another scholarship that is funded by the Taiwan government while I am already a TaiwanICDF scholarship recipient?

A12: No. If you have already been accepted as a TaiwanICDF scholarship recipient, you may neither apply nor accept another Taiwan agency-financed scholarship.

Q13: Can I apply for a scholarship again right after I graduate from a TICA program?

A13: No. There must be at least a one-year gap before your next application for a Taiwan ICDF scholarship.

Q14: Can I extend the duration of the scholarship?

A14: No. You may not extend the duration of the scholarship. Any additional duration of study must be taken at your own expense.

Q15: My country is on the list of eligible countries, but there is no ROC (Taiwan) Embassy / Consulate General / Representative Office here. Where can I send my documents to?

A15: Please send your documents to the nearest ROC (Taiwan) Embassy / Consulate General / Representative Office in charge. Click here to find out more information about ROC embassies and missions abroad.
